PREMIERE EXECUTIVE SUITES PRESIDENT RECOGNIZED AS ONE OF TOP 50 CEOS IN ATLANTIC CANADA

Mississauga, Ontario (June 7, 2011) Working tirelessly to better your organization and the people around you is no simple task. To do so requires resilience, dedication and ultimately, a winning attitude. Each of these traits describes two individuals that truly deserve the honour of being ranked among this year's Top 50 CEOs of Atlantic Canada.

Suzanne Larochelle-Bachur, President of Premiere Executive Suites Atlantic Limited, and Gordon Laing, President and COO of Southwest Properties Limited, are both individuals who have positively impacted their organizations and the people around them. Whether it is recognizing and capitalizing on crucial opportunities to better the organization or closing complex deals, these remarkable individuals truly exemplify the notion that hard work really does pay off.

But what has fueled them to become so successful? Adopting a positive personality and learning how to effectively motivate employees through clear communication and support have been major keys to success according to Larochelle-Bachur and Laing. Additionally, their outstanding work ethic and their constant willingness to learn make both of these individuals' tremendous leaders who deserve this recognition.

The PES family is extremely proud of these two amazing and multifaceted leaders and would like to congratulate them on achieving such a significant accomplishment.
